Cities & Attractions

ABERDEEN

The largest city in Grays Harbor County, home of Washington State's Tall Ship Ambassador, The Lady Washington. A city with a past, Aberdeen had a reputation by the 1890's of being the toughest town west of Chicago, with a culture of gamblers, saloons, dance halls, crib houses and honky tonks.

Things have calmed down and today, Aberdeen is a much quieter family town, with parks, recreation and a downtown undergoing historic restoration. Be sure to walk the two mile waterfront trail along the Chehalis River, from Morrison Park to downtown Aberdeen. Grays Harbor Chamber of Commerce, 506 Duffy St., Aberdeen, WA 98520, Tel: (360) 532-1924, 800-321-1924, Fax: (360) 533-7945

ABERDEEN MUSEUM OF HISTORY

P.O. Box 722, 111 E Third St.

Aberdeen, WA 98520

(360) 533-1976

Built in 1922 as the National Guard Armory, this building houses one of the most extensive museum collections in the area. Exhibits include dioramas, slide and video programs, fire fighting equipment, farming and logging artifacts. Open June through Labor Day, Wed.-Sun., 11am to 4pm and Sept. through May, weekends, Noon to 4pm. $1.00 per person, adv. notice suggested.

COONEY MANSION B&B

P.O. Box 54, 1705 Fifth St.

Cosmopolis, WA 98537

(360) 533-0602

A 1908 Historic Register Inn built by lumber baron Neil Cooney, authentically restored craftsman-style mansion. Catered meals, high teas and special tours can be arranged for groups up to 50. In December, the Mansion features a "Dickens Family Christmas" offering tea with Queen Victoria, an Arts & Crafts Bazaar and Victorian dinners.

Chamber Music Festival weekends mid-June into September with the Philadelphia String Quartet and guest artists. These "Concerts in the Barn" are held on a 55 acre farm near Quilcene, 10 miles from the Hood Canal Bridge. Perfect for groups, ask about special rates.

USFS Quilcene Ranger District

P.O. Box 280, Quilcene, WA 98376
(360) 765-2200

In honor of the only Forest Service lands in the US that touch saltwater, the Quilcene District has created the Seal Rock Interpretive Trail, a 1/4 mile accessible trail along Hood Canal with signage and wonderful water views.

An Auto-Forest tour of managed public forest lands is available in summer months, with interpretive booklets and cassette. Guides for coach tours can also be arranged. Mount Walker

Viewpoint offers splendid views of the Hood Canal, Seattle and Olympic Mountain summits, accessible via a short gravel road and on Forest Service Road #2730.

CLALLAM BAY/SEKIU

These sister communities are a mile apart on scenic Hwy. 112, connected by a sweeping crescent beach along the Strait of Juan de Fuca. Known for their friendliness and fantastic views of Canada's Vancouver Island, Clallam Bay and Sekiu offer services, gas and restaurants when exploring the Northwest Coast. Clallam Bay/Seki Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 355, Clallam Bay, WA 98326, (360) 963-2339.

Forks Timber Museum & Loggers Memorial

P.O. Box 873

Hwy. 101, Forks, WA 98331

(360) 374-9663

A large log structure highlights a rich timber heritage with tools, vintage machinery and even logger jargon. Exhibits include a restored fire lookout tower, coastal Native American displays, and pioneer history. The adjacent Loggers Memorial features an 8-foot carved "Logger."

Timber Museum, Visitor Information Center and Loggers Memorial are adjacent to each other on the south end of Forks. A 1/4 mile nature trail, chainsaw carvings and several memorial gardens surround the structures. Open daily April through Oct., off season by appointment. Free admission, donations welcome.

Olympic Natural Resources Center

P.O. Box 1628

1455 S Forks Ave., Forks, WA 98331

(360) 374-3220, Fax (360) 374-3336

A University of WA facility to serve as a research & education center for scientists exploring methods to maintain forests as an economic resource while preserving and enhancing the ecosystem.

Program & event venues, catering kitchen, dormitory facilities. Home of "Art on the Hill", featuring outstanding works by local artists. Tours and programs available.

GRAYLAND

A small community along scenic Hwy.105, Grayland is the heart of the "Cranberry Coast". Tours of local cranberry bogs gladly arranged. Long, sandy beaches invite a stroll, or a drive, and shops, galleries and oceanfront diners beckon. Cranberry Coast Chamber, P.O. Box 305, Grayland, WA 98547, Tel: 800-473-6018, (360) 267-2003, Fax: (360) 267-1401.

HOQUIAM

The name originates from the Indian word Ho-qui-umpts, meaning "hungry for wood". This city of 9,000 is one of the oldest communities on Grays Harbor, established in 1858. Bowerman Basin, near the Hoquiam Airfield, offers some of the best birdwatching in the state when over 1 million shorebirds stop over during the annual spring migration. Grays Harbor Chamber of Commerce, 506 Duffy St., Aberdeen, WA 98520, Tel: 800-321-1924, (360) 532-1924, Fax: (360) 533-7945.

Hoquiam's Castle

515 Chenault Ave.

Hoquiam, WA 98550

(360) 533-2005

Built in 1897 by lumber tycoon Robert Lytle, and christened "The Castle" by local residents, it's stately beauty was quite a contrast to the sawmills and bar rooms of the lusty, booming timber town of Hoquiam. Hoquiam's Castle is listed on the National Reg. of Historic Places.

The Castle is open to the public from 10am to 5pm seven days a week during the summer and from 11am to 5pm on Saturday and Sunday the remainder of the year. Admission is $4.00 for adults. Group rates and appointments available. (See ad page 6)

Lytle House Bed & Breakfast

509 Chenault Ave., Hoquiam, WA 98550

(360) 533-2320

Built in 1897, the National Registry of Historic Places refers to Lytle House as the finest example of Queen Anne architecture in the country. Now a B&B offering catered meals for tour groups and special events for up to 42 people. Located next door to Hoquiam Castle, you can tour the castle, then enjoy a meal at Lytle House - all in one stop. (See ad page 6)

Polson Park & Museum

P.O. Box 432

1611 Riverside Ave., Hoquiam, WA 98550

(360) 533-5862

One of the state's outstanding small museums, there is something for everyone. Antique furniture, Indian artifacts, collectible dolls, local history, clothes of yesteryear, logging memorabilia and much more! Also the home of the "Little Hoquiam River Railroad", an HO scale layout representative of logging in the mid-1800's in this area. Groups are better served with a week's advance notice. Admission: Adults $2.00. Group rates available.

KEYPORT

The Naval Undersea Warfare Center, aka "Torpedo Town USA", is one of several US Navy installations on the Bremerton/Kitsap Peninsula. The small community is quite charming, and its shorelines on Liberty Bay offer wonderful birdwatching. For information contact the museum listed below.

Naval Undersea Museum

610 Dowell (East of Hwy. 3 on Keyport Rd.)

Keyport, WA 98345

(360) 396-4148, ext. 222

Free admission; all areas wheelchair accessible, open year-round, (closed holidays and Tuesdays Oct.-May) 10am to 4pm. Ample coach parking, gift shop.

MCCLEARY

At the eastern edge of Grays Harbor County, McCleary was sold by its owner, lock, stock and barrel on January 1, 1942. The new year's "orphan" city was lucky to have a new owner that encouraged independent incorporation, securing the town's future.

A historic hotel, once the founder's private residence, graces the city, and many murals in the downtown core make for a pleasant stop. McCleary Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 53, McCleary, WA 98557, Fax (360) 495-4357.

Old McCleary

42 Summit, P.O. Box 1140

for entertaining business people. Homemade cooking served family style in a warm relaxed atmosphere.

MOCLIPS/NORTH BEACH

A scenic drive along Hwy. 109 between Ocean Shores and Tahola offers great views and access points to the Pacific Ocean, passing through a series of small, ocean front towns including Ocean City, Copalis Beach, Pacific Beach and Moclips. Washington Coast Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 562, Copalis Beach, WA 98535, 800-286-4552, (360) 289-4552, Fax (360) 289-4045.

MONTESANO

Grays Harbor's county seat, Montesano boasts a beautiful 3 story courthouse, an enduring testament to skilled craftsmen working in sandstone, marble, granite, wood and stained glass. Richly painted historic murals highlight this building which was completed in 1911.

The neighborhood surrounding the courthouse contains many turn-of-the-century stately homes, making a delightful walking tour. Montesano Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 688, Montesano, WA 98563, Phone/Fax (360) 249-5522.

NEAH BAY

Home to the Makah Tribe, an ancient whaling society, Neah Bay is located at the most northwestern tip of the contiguous US! Visitors are welcome to most areas of the 28,000 acre Makah Indian Reservation, including the goose-bump-beautiful Hobuck beach on the West side of Neah Bay and the Cape Flattery Trail. This 1/2 mile trail, newly upgraded in fall 1996, offers breathtaking views of Tatoosh Island and the convergence of the Pacific Ocean and the Strait of Juan de Fuca. Watch for authentic Makah crafts in the shops along Bayview Avenue. Makah Visitors Bureau, P.O. Box 115, Neah Bay, WA 98357, (360) 645-3115.

Makah Cultural & Research Center (Makah Museum)

P.O. Box 160
Neah Bay, WA 98357
(360) 645-2711,
Fax (360) 645-2656

HISTORIC PORT GAMBLE

One Rainier Avenue, Port Gamble, WA 98364

Museum: 360-297-8074 • General Store: 360-297-7636

Once the Northwest's oldest continuously operating mill town, Port Gamble offers a vignette of life in the 1800's. The Port Gamble Historic Museum (call for days and times open) takes a look at the journey of the founders and the town, from the ship's cabin they traveled in, to homes they built, to a 1903 hotel room and even a replica of the San Francisco office. The town of Port Gamble is a National Historic site, with over 30 homes rebuilt and restored.

Sharing the same building is the Port Gamble General Store, with turn-of-the-century charm. Unique gifts, year round Christmas items and old fashioned treats will transport your tour to a simpler time. The old-fashioned deli offers homemade sandwiches, desserts and refreshments and even espresso, making a picnic in the nearby park a pleasant choice for lunch! Open seven days a week.

largest fine art gallery, located 4 blocks from the ferry—45 MIN. TOUR. From the waterfront, board Kitsap Harbor Tours for a “seal-level” tour of the Bremerton Naval Shipyard, with over 60 modern and mothballed frigates, aircraft carriers and battleships moored here for possible future readiness — 1 HR. TOUR. Tour passengers stay aboard Kitsap Harbor Tours and continue to Port Orchard, a community rich in antique dealers, unique shops and restaurants. After lunch, rendezvous with coach, tour Little Habitats where one man’s hobby has become a haven for miniature enthusiasts — 30 MIN. TOUR. Next stop is Springhouse Dolls & Gifts and the Victorian Rose Tearoom where Teddies, collectibles and fine collector dolls can be found, and afternoon tea is a must — 1 HR. TOUR & TEA. A unique plant museum, Elandan Gardens, rounds out the day with bonsai specimens, some over 1,000 years old, sculptural driftwood and exotic gardens with ponds, plants and treasures from around the world — 1 1/4 HR. TOUR. Overnight in Bremerton, Silverdale or Poulsbo.

DAY 2 - Visit Poulsbo, settled over a century ago by Norwegians who found the glacier-carved fjords reminiscent of their homeland. Modern Poulsbo is still rich with Scandinavian customs and history, evidenced in storefronts and murals. Visit Sluys Poulsbo Bakery, originators of the Northwest’s favorite nutty bread. Allow some time to stroll the town, winding up at the Marine Science Center for coach boarding and departure for Bloedel Reserve. Time in Poulsbo: — 2 HR. STAY. Bloedel Reserve, a 150 acre reserve featuring moss gardens and much more — 1 1/2 HR. TOUR. Before boarding a return ferry at Bainbridge, visit Bainbridge Gardens and Bainbridge Island Winery, both enroute to Bainbridge Island ferry terminal. Depart for Seattle.

DAY 3 OPTION - After visiting Bloedel Reserve on day 2, head north for a guided walking tour of Historic Port Gamble. Visit the adjacent Port Gamble Historic Museum, the Port Gamble General Store and Of Sea and Shore Museum. Cross the Hood Canal Floating Bridge for Port Townsend overnight. Step-aboard service for the Port Townsend and Quimper Peninsula starts Day 3, followed by a walking tour of historic Water Street. Time to shop and lunch in the artsy and historical downtown Port Townsend. Depart on Whidbey Island Ferry, travelling south to Mukilteo and I-5 south to Seattle.

ADD SOME RAIN FOREST TO YOUR NW TOUR

This three day itinerary works well with a Seattle/Oregon Coast Tour, or a Mt. St. Helens/Washington Coast Loop.

DAY 1 - Entering Grays Harbor County from Hwy 12, stop at the Montesano Courthouse for a guided tour of this beautiful 1911 structure and a short walk to the stately 1890’s homes surrounding the courthouse — 1 1/4 HR. TOUR. Depart for Aberdeen, beginning with exploration of the historic downtown district, where 132 buildings were erected in the years following a devastating fire in 1904 — 1 HR. TOUR, followed by a visit to Aberdeen Landing and a dockside tour of Washington State’s Tall Ship Ambassador, Lady Washington. Lunch at either Aberdeen or Hoquiam. Depart early afternoon for overnight at Lake Quinalt Rain Forest.

DAY 2 - Start this day with an awe-inspiring walk through the temperate rain forest. A US Forest Service Ranger will interpret the flora and fauna of this unique ecosystem along a short trail that winds through the forest and along the lake — 1 1/2 HR. TOUR. Depart Quinalt, taking the scenic tour route to the Pacific Ocean and Ocean Shores for a lunch stop. Enroute to Hoquiam from Ocean Shores is Bowerman Basin, where upwards of half a million shorebirds stop on their annual spring migration. Continue to Aberdeen to visit the Polson Museum, a 26-room mansion with historic displays of pioneer, Indian and early shipbuilding history on Grays Harbor — 1 HR. TOUR. Arrive in Westport for a late afternoon stroll along the boardwalk and a peek into the Maritime Museum and Westport Lighthouse.

DAY 3 - Westport offers a choice of tours, including an agricultural tour with a coastal twist!

OPTION 1 - Visit a 4th-generation family oyster farm, where the suspended culture style of farming is used and a smokehouse and cannery can be seen, followed by a visit to a cranberry bog, where these tart little berries are grown below ground level — 2 1/2 HR. TOUR.

OPTION 2 - Take a whale watching excursion into the Pacific to see California gray whales on their annual spring migration to Alaska waters. Available February through April. — 6 HR. TOUR.

OPTION 3 - Embark on a narrated River Cruise, touring the Chehalis River and the shorelines of Grays Harbor, known to attract hundreds of bird species. Learn the tall ship history of this harbor, and tales of its work-hard, play-hard past — 3 HR. TOUR.

Continue to Raymond via Tokeland and on to Mt. St. Helens, Oregon coast via Astoria, Portland or Seattle.

COASTING ALONG THE COAST

This tour takes a route along the Washington Coast from Raymond to Port Angeles, a good fit with an Oregon to British Columbia tour.

DAY 1 - Enter the “Cranberry Coast” from Raymond and Hwy. 105, arriving at Westport for lunch. Tour a family-operated oyster farm, learning about suspended culture farming and the harvesting, smoking and processing of this delicacy. Then visit a local cranberry bog to see how these berries are grown below ground level for moisture and flooding at harvest — 2 1/2 HR. TOUR. Depart for Aberdeen to visit the Aberdeen Museum of History, home of the most extensive museum collection in the area with dioramas, firefighting equipment, farming and logging artifacts — 1 HR. TOUR. Overnight in Aberdeen or Hoquiam.

Itineraries

DAY 2 - Set sail aboard a tall ship from the square rigger-era Lady Washington, an authentic reproduction of the craft that brought Captain Robert Gray to the northwest, is available for 3 hour cruises. Departing from Aberdeen Landing at the waterfront, the teaching tour will enlighten your group about how "real men" sailed the seven seas in the 18th century. This "Lady" has been named Washington State's official Tall Ship Ambassador — 3 1/2 HR. TOUR. Lunch in Aberdeen or Hoquiam. Depart for Lake Quinalt in the heart of Olympic National Forest. A network of trails near the historic lodge are the setting for a guided walk with a Forest Service Ranger. These valleys of the Olympic Peninsula are the only temperate rain forests in the northern hemisphere. — 1 1/4 HR. TOUR. Overnight in Lake Quinalt.

DAY 3 - Enjoy a morning stop at Kalaloch Beach in Olympic National Park, part of the nation's newest National Marine Sanctuary. A guided low tide walk reveals a colorful display of sea-life, interpreted by a National Park Ranger. Continue on Hwy. 101 to Forks for a visit to the Forks Timber Museum and Loggers Memorial, with machinery, implements and displays of logging "terms", an authentic bunkhouse and fire lookout — 45 MIN. TOUR. Lunch in Forks before departing for Lake Crescent for a scenic interpretive cruise on this glacier-carved lake — 1 1/2 HR. TOUR. A mile-long trail to spectacular Marymere Falls is also on Lake Crescent near the cruise departure point. Overnight in Port Angeles.

DAY 4 - Visit Hurricane Ridge in Olympic National Park, elevation 5,200 ft. Join a fireside chat in the Lodge with a National Park Ranger to learn about the alpine region of the park. Drive up and 1 hour on top: — 2 1/2 HR. TOUR. Lunch in Port Angeles, depart for Victoria, B.C., Canada in afternoon.

SEATTLE-VICTORIA-VANCOUVER, B.C. TRIANGLE WITH AN OLYMPIC TWIST!

When considering a loop to cover these cities, this option is sure to be the highlight of the tour!

DAY 1 - Depart Seattle waterfront aboard a Ferry to Bainbridge Island. On Bainbridge, tour Bloedel Reserve, a 150 acre exquisitely groomed estate established by a timber family. Stroll the paths past Japanese gardens, reflection pools with fountains and seasonal plantings — 1 1/2 HR. TOUR. Depart for the award-winning Suquamish Museum, interpreting life of Chief Sealth's (Seattle's) people, who inhabited this land up to 15,000 years ago. Continue to Port Townsend, a town built a century ago on the speculation that it would one day be the major northwest port. Overnight in Port Townsend.

EXTRA DAY OPTION - Take a full-day tour of the San Juan Islands on a passenger craft, taking time to view wildlife, ship traffic and shorelines, with a lunch and shopping layover in Friday Harbor. Return to Port Townsend in time for dinner.

DAY 2 - Tour the Commanding Officers Quarters at Fort Worden State Park followed by a tour of Victorian neighborhoods with colorful historic gossip provided by a local step-on guide. Lunch in Port Townsend before departing for Sequim and the Olympic Game Farm. The Game Farm, formerly known as the Disney Animal Farm, serves as a film backdrop for many commercials and feature films. Tour includes a narrated walk & 2 mile drive. View animal movie stars and exotics from around the world — 2 1/2 HR. TOUR. Overnight in Sequim or Port Angeles.

DAY 3 - Port Angeles sits on the water, at the foot of a dramatic wall of mountains. Travel from sea level to Hurricane Ridge, at "ski level" in Olympic National Park, elev. 5200 ft. Up top, several small trails near the Lodge offer more views with interpretive signage. A National Park Interpretive Ranger will also explain the fragility and tenacity of the plants and animals of this area on a guided walk. Travel time plus 1 hour on top: — 2 1/2 HR. TOUR. Lunch at Lake Crescent or Sekiu enroute to Neah Bay. Tour the Makah Museum accompanied by a Makah step-aboard guide. Continue with a narrated tour of tribal points of interest. Return to Port Angeles for overnight and Victoria departure in the morning.

THE TWO-NATION SWEEP

For a tour that can start or end in British Columbia, the Olympic Peninsula offers an exciting option for a two-nation tour. Ferry service from Victoria to Port Angeles, and Port Townsend to Whidbey Island are the entry/exit points for a "sweep". See days 3 through 5 on the Highlights of the Olympic Peninsula tour, or days 2 and 3 on the Seattle/Victoria/Vancouver with an Olympic Twist.

OUR TIMBER HERITAGE

Working forests, ancient forests, vintage and modern harvesting methods...a common theme throughout the Olympic Peninsula. The peninsula's waterfront communities, commerce and cultures grew around shorelines and timber.

Here are ideas for a Timber theme tour:

- Bloedel Reserve, Bainbridge Island
- Elandan Gardens, Bremerton
- Port Gamble Historical Museum, Port Gamble
- Merrill & Ring Pysht Tree Farm, Clallam Bay
- Forks Timber Museum & Loggers Memorial Hoquiam Castle, Hoquiam
- Polson Museum, Hoquiam
- US Forest Service, Quinault and Quilcene
- Aberdeen Museum of History, Aberdeen
- Morrison Park Loggers Memorial, Aberdeen
- Olympic Natural Resources Center, Forks

NORTHWEST FARE

Dungeness Crab, Quilcene Oysters, Quinault Salmon and Poulsbo Bread are just a few well-known Olympic Peninsula products. Plan to include some of the following "Northwest Fare" in your tour.

- Bainbridge Island Winery, Bainbridge Island
- Olympic Cellars, Sequim
- Sluys Poulsbo Bakery, Poulsbo
- Quinault National Fish Hatchery
- Satsop Bulb Farm, Elma
- Ocean Spray Cranberry Bogs, Grayland
- Brady Oyster Farm, Aberdeen

NATIVE AMERICAN SIGHTS

Experience the cultures of the first peoples of the Olympic Peninsula by visiting the following sites and attractions.

- Tillicum Village Dinner Show
- Suquamish Museum, Suquamish
- Suquamish Clearwater Casino, Suquamish
- Chief Seattle's Grave site, Suquamish
- Seven Cedars Casino and Native American Art Gallery, Sequim
- Makah Museum, Native American Adventures step-aboard service with traditional Salmon Bake, Neah Bay

WILDLIFE VIEWING

The Olympic Peninsula offers outstanding year-round wildlife viewing with its vast tracts of public lands, miles of secluded shorelines and dozens of wild rivers. Here are some highlights:

Upstream salmon runs take place year-round, with high concentrations in the fall; California gray whales pass along the Pacific coast between February and April, high shoreline vistas and charter boats offer good viewing; bands of Roosevelt elk can often be seen in low-land valleys.

Birding is excellent across the Peninsula which is located on the northwest flyway for migratory birds, over 1 million shorebirds gather near Hoquiam in April and large numbers of eagles gather along the Strait of Juan de Fuca near Hwy. 112 between February and April.

WALKING TOURS

A wonderful way to experience the Olympic Peninsula is along a trail to a waterfall, on an alpine ridge or along a secluded shore. National, State, municipal and private peninsula parks offer over 1,000 miles of trails, with dozens of choices that can often be accompanied by a local guide. Specialty tours of interest to your group can be arranged upon request.

LAKE QUINAUT LODGE

Lake Quinault, WA

360-288-2900

www.visitlakequinault.com

Nestled in the heart of the Olympic Rain Forest with a sweeping view of Lake Quinault, this historical Lodge is the area's most complete resort facility. Built in 1926, the property features 91 guest units and offers a year-round indoor swimming pool and sauna, a fireplace lobby, game room, and the private Quillayute Ballroom for special events. Guests can enjoy several activities on the site at The Lodge including boat rentals and fishing excursions on the lake and miles of rain forest trails to explore! The U.S. Forest Service offers free interpretive fireside programs spring, summer and early fall on site at The Lodge.

Join us at the lakeview Roosevelt Dining Room, named after a visit from The President in 1937. The restaurant offers breakfast, lunch or dinner and features fresh Pacific Northwest cuisine including Quinault Salmon served in traditional Northwest style, and marionberry cobbler, a house specialty for over 70 years!

Lake Quinault Lodge hosts and welcomes groups year-round. As tour specialists, our full-service tour support features pre-planning assistance, room blocks, special on-board VIP welcome, pre-ticket/keying, portage & billing.

Lake Quinault Lodge
The Rest Comes Easy.

Lake Quinault Lodge is managed by ARAMARK and operates under a special permit by the U.S. Forest Service in Olympic National Forest.
